CII on Tour

Saturday, September 17

Volendam is Holland's best-known fishing village. Take a look at the old harbour full of old Dutch ships and take a boat trip to Marken. Or have your photo taken wearing traditional Volendam clothes and learn more about Volendam in one of its museums.

A quest in the town of Volendam, a visit to a museum and enjoying the typical Volendam music (called “paling sound”).

Taking pictures in traditional Dutch costume.

Time of your own and ending with a dinner in town.

Other attractions not to miss:

- Volendams Museum
- Palingsound Museum and eel smokehouse
- Chees Factory Volendam
- Volendam Marken Express
- Doolhof and Oude Kom

Explore Haarlem

The beautiful host city

St. Bavokerk/Church of St. Bavo

- Located in the heart of the Grote Markt, Haarlem's main city square.
- This late Gothic cruciform basilica is 140 meters in length and features a slender 40-meter tower.
- The Müller Organ was built by Christian Müller in 1738 and features three manuals, 68 stops, and 5,000 pipes, the largest of which is 10 meters long with a diameter of 40 centimeters. Among

Windmill De Adriaan

- Original windmill dates from 1779.

Grote Markt

- Surrounded by many historic buildings.
- Great for shopping, restaurants and crafts.

Amsterdamse Poort

- It is located at the end of the old route from Amsterdam to Haarlem and the only gate left from the original twelve city gates.

Other attractions not to miss:

- Teylers Museum
- Frans Hals Museum
- Haarlem Railway Station
- Stadhuis Haarlem
- Corrie ten Boom House
- Draaiorgelmuseum
- Argeologisch Museum
- Vleeshal
- De Vishal
- Botermarkt
- Exploring the many beautiful hofjes

Eat Traditional

Try haring, stroopwafels, poffertjes...

Poffertjes - You may also know them as small pancakes or flapjacks depending on where in the world you are from.

Hollandse Nieuwe Haring - Pickled fish! Raw herring coated in a preserving liquid, made of vinegar, spices and cider.

Kibbeling - Usually made of whitefish (or cod, pollock, tilapia, and many others), cut into small pieces, dipped in a mixture of flour, egg, beer, and spices, and then fried.

Pannekoeken - a traditional pancake served with a savoury or sweet filling.

Stamppot - It's a dish of mashed potatoes combined with root vegetables, like turnip, carrot and onion, but it can also include dark, leafy greens like kale or spinach.

Oliebollen - Old-fashioned Dutch doughnuts

Erwtensoep - You've never had a split pea soup quite like the Dutch makes it.

Bitterballen/Kroketten - Balls of finely chopped beef or veal that are seasoned with a mixture of spices, then rolled in bread crumbs and deep fried.

Appeltaart - Yes, you guessed it, it is apple tart!

Stroopwafels - A stroopwafel is made with two very thin cookies with stroop (sugar syrup) holding them together. Stroopwafels are often served with coffee or tea.

Broodje Hagelslag - Hagelslag is a bit like cake sprinkles and is made of chocolate or sugar.

Wentelteefjes - Dutch variation of French toast.

Rookworst - Smoked sausage. Rookworst can be bought hot from street stalls or be served to accompany stamppotte.

Drop - Sweet or salty licorice, hard or soft, shaped like marbles, chalk, coins etc.

Kaas - Make sure you try at least some Dutch-made cheese!

Frietjes - Dutch fries (patat or frietjes) are one of the most common Dutch snacks you will find in the Netherlands.
