Bernarda Skrabar, CII
Detektivsko Varnostna Agencija
Slovenia

Years a CII member: 7

Years in business: 14

Nominators: John Withers, Anne Styren

Statement: I have been a private investigator since 2006 and established my own company immediately after getting my detective license. I am currently in the process of obtaining a PhD in Criminal Justice and Security, with a focus on the cognitive interview. I chose this particular topic because I firmly believe that it is important to connect theoretical knowledge with practical experiences. I see the Council of International Investigators as a group of the best private investigators in the world and I am honored to be part of such a distinguished group of experts. I believe that I could, with my knowledge and experiences, greatly contribute to the CII's further growth and bring a unique point of view to the CII, since I do believe that my vision of the private investigative activity is crucial for further growth of this institution.

Yosh Wong, CII
Suzcess Limited
Hong Kong

Years a CII member: 5

Years in business: 22

Nominators: David MacLeod, Sachit Kumar, Sheila Ponnosamy, Toine Goorts, Eddy Sigrist

Statement: It has been my honor to serve the Executive Board for 2019-2020. This year has been difficult for our members and for our industry. As a result, the Executive Board had no choice but to cancel the AGM and various Regional Meetings. However, this provided a new opportunity to our Conference Committee, which I am a member of, to proactively encourage members to connect through various webinars. During this time, my Board involvement allowed me to learn more about the Council as well as providing me the opportunity to work and learn from a very experienced Board. As I am now reaching the end of my one-year term, I wish members to vote for me so I can continue to serve the Council and to assist the CII to reach new heights. Stay safe!
